(1754 – 1840)

Transcribed July 2002 by R Stoy

The following was transcribed from the microfilmed document "Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty-Land-Warrant Application Files," The National Archives, Washington DC, microcopy No. 804, roll 2105, frame 0711, file no. W4506 for Samuel Rutan.

The transcription is rendered as accurately as possible, including any misspellings, with the exception of the use of the script "ps", which is transcribed as "ss". The material is reordered from what appears in the file to be in date order.

I Samuel Rutan of Washington County in the State of Pennsylvania do swear by Almighty God the [?] of [?], that I served in the revolutionary war against the common enemy for one whole year – commencing in the month of February in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight [erased] hundred and seventy six – I enlisted as a private soldier in Captain Samuel Potters company which was raised in Morris County in the State of New Jersey and attached to Colonel Dayton's regiment of the Jersey Militia I served the United States faithfully till the expiration of the term of my enlistment, at which period my health was so bad that I was under the necessity of returning home, otherwise I might have reenlisted – I am now an old man, unable to work and in such reduced circumstances as to need assistance from my country for support – I never received any written discharge, the reason of which was we were discharged at Morristown within ten miles of which I lived I went home intending to come back and get my discharge and I did come back twice afterwards, but the colonel was so much engaged that he could not attend to it at that time, and I afterwards neglected it – It may not be improper to state that I was out several times in the militia and was in several engagements one of which was the Battle of Monmoth – In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the Eighth day of May A.D. one thousand eight hundred and eighteen ---

Immediately after my return home in the spring of 1776 I volunteered and served one month May, in Captain Peter Latens [Layton] company of militia of Col Seelys Regiment, stationed at Elizabethtown New Jersey and when the term was out, I again enlisted for another month, June, in Captain Carters company of said Regiment, and when the term had expired I again enlisted for the month of July in Captain John Lindleys company of said Col Seelys Regiment, thus I served three months in succession during which time I was stationed at Elizabethtown as aforesaid. In the summer of 1777 I enlisted and served one month in Captain Peter Latens company of said Col Seelys Regiment, and was present and engaged with the enemy on second River near Newark. In the month of September 1777 I enlisted and served another month in the said company which was stationed at Mount holly. And in the month of June 1778 I enlisted and served one month in said Captain Latens company and was present and engaged with the said company in the battle of Monmouth, and in the Summer of said year I enlisted and served another month in said Captain Latens company during which times I was stationed with the company at Morristown, and immediately after the term had expired I again enlisted and served another month in said company under the command of said Captain Laten, which was stationed during the month at Elizabethtown point. Last of May or beginning of June 1780 I again enlisted, and served for two months in said Captain Latens Company which had been and still was of Col Seelys Regiment and was present and engaged with the enemy at the battle of Connecticut farm and shortly afterwards was present and engaged with the enemy at the battle of Springfield being under the immediate command of General Washington. Besides the fourteen months which I served in the regular Army of the United States of Col Daytons Regiment I volunteered and served ten months in the Militia, as detailed in the foregoing declaration, moreover upon all occasions of alarm and emergency, I turned out as a volunteer against the enemy, for ^the^ Service however I make no claim, I only ask a pension for two years Service to the United States which I have faithfully performed as herein stated, and I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension except the present and that my name is not on the Pension Roll of any state, only on that of the United States.

That he is, and has been for near Sixty years, well acquainted with Samuel Rutan, who has subscribed his name to the above declaration, that he served with him in the same Regiment from the 14th July 1775 till the 15 April 1776 under the command of Col Dayton, as stated in the above declaration. The ten months service of Militia duty performed by the said Samuel Rutan as by him stated, I verily believe that he duly performed, not only from my own knowledge, but from the concurrent opinion of his neighbours where he formerly lived, as well as in the county where he now lives. The said Samuel Rutan moreover is considered to be a man of an excellent character, sober, honest & correct in his habits, hence the truth of his declaration cannot be doubted

Lindlys Mills Washington County Pa

Dear Sir

At the request of Mrs Rutan I send you enclosed her declaration to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress of the 4th of July 1836 I have been acquainted with her for more than forty five years and have no doubt of the Justness of her claim She has resided for that space of time a near neighbour to me and has sustained a most exemplary character and she still retains her mental and physical powers to a surprising degree for one of her age but her pecuniary circumstances are such that if she is entitled to assistance from her country and can obtain it she will no doubt pass the short time she may yet survive more cheerful and contented than to be dependant on her friends and it would in some measure compensate for those trials privations and hardships which she suffered during the Revolutionary war On examining the records I think you will find that Samuel Rutan (the husband of the applicant) was placed on the pension list under a former act of Congress and afterwards dropped from the list in consequence of his being in possession of property and that under a subsequent act of Congress he was again placed on th4 list at perhaps 60 or 70 per annum which was afterwards increased to (I believe) 80 dollars

The witnesses whose depositions are attached to the declaration Viz Sarah Simpson and Lydia Sayer are persons whose characters are unimpeachable If the proof is considered sufficient please direct the Certificate to Lindlys Mills Washington County [?] (either to the widow or myself) or if any more proof is necessary please inform us I can assure you that I have no Interest or motive in addressing you other than a desire that Justice be done to an aged & respected neighbour

Most respectfully yours
