Jacob Caylor Will

In the name of the benevolent father of all I Jacob Caylor of the County of Fayette and State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and Testament

1st. I give and devise to my beloved wife in lieu of her dower the farm upon which we now reside, situate in said county and on main paint creek containing about two hundred and sixty acres, purchased of Anthony Potts and John Legore during her natural life and all the household goods, furniture, provisions, six cows, eight hogs, all my sheep which George Clouser now has on shares, my gray horse, said cows & hogs to be selected by my wife during her natural life aforesaid. At the death of my said wife Catherine the real estate aforesaid I give and devise to my son John Caylor & his heirs and assigns forever, upon this condition, the said John his heirs or assigns shall support in a good and comfortable manner during her natural life if she shall so long remain single, my daughter Rebecca and pay to my executor herein after named the sum of two thousand dollars in annual instalments of two hundred dollars each.

2^d. I wish my executor at my death to sell my land in Jay County Indiana, consisting of about three hundred and seventy two acres more or less, and all my personal property not herein disposed of and divide the sum of money arising therefrom equally among my heirs, excepting as follows. John is to have no part of the money arising from the sale of my said Indiana land, and my daughter Polly is to be paid out of the same before it is divided, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.

3^d. I give and devise to my daughter Rebecca, in addition to her share of my personal estate, two cows, two beds, bedsteads and bedding, and one horse to be selected by her

4th. The residue of my property moneys and debts I wish to be divided among my wife and heirs according to law except I do not wish my son John to have any part of the debts or moneys [??] for lands sold in Indiana.

5th. I do hereby nominate and appoint Anthony Wright and Robert Scott Executors of this my last will and Testament hereby authorizing and empowering them to compromise, adjust, and discharge in such manner as they may think proper the debts and claims due me.

I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made
In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 14th day of April
A.D. 1848

Signed and acknowledged by the said Jacob Caylor
as his last will and Testament in our presence and signed by us in his presence.
